My Weekend

Mr Dennis Teh, 37, is owner of foot reflex spa Feet Haven, Bournemouth and influencer marketing and media agency The Influencer Network Communications. He will host a YouTube programme, The Three Minute Affair, in which he speaks to notable local personalities. The bachelor will move into his new condominium in Flora Drive next month.

“Sports is a big part of my lifestyle so throughout the week, I keep physically active. But on weekends, there is a bigger focus on activities such as volleyball and cycling.

On Fridays, I finish work at 6pm, which is typically the time I leave the office on weekdays. I don't believe in working late as there has to be good work-life balance to keep myself contented.

The evening is either spent playing volleyball, chilling with friends over dinner or catching a movie at the cinema.

Volleyball has been my favourite sport since I was a teen. I head to the HomeTeamNS clubhouse in Balestier or the Singapore Sports Hub to play with a regular group of fellow enthusiasts.

I keep my Saturdays and Sundays work-free and wake up slightly later, at around 9 to 10am.

Saturday mornings are when I go hunting for old-school breakfast fare at hawker centres. Nowadays, people are all about visiting the slew of cafes that have popped up. But Singapore has several forgotten breakfast joints that have retained the traditional flavours of the sixties.

Some hawker centres I frequent are the Mei Ling Market and Food Centre in Queenstown for the duck noodles and a small Tiong Bahru canteen shop that has really good vegetarian noodles.

In the afternoon, I head to the Katong branch of Feet Haven - not to work, but to get a relaxing foot massage. The staff might get angry thinking I'm testing them, but it's really for my own enjoyment.

After the massage, a friend and I meet at East Coast Park to cycle. We love cycling in the park and get to Marina Barrage as the greenery and sea breeze really make for a comfortable ride.

The programme for Sundays is more fixed. In the morning, I head to New Creation Church for service. If I don't wake up in time, I will attend the last service in the early evening instead.

This is followed by two sessions of volleyball at the Co-Curricular Activities Branch sports hall in Evers Road. I would play with one group in the afternoon and another in the morning. As long as I can keep playing volleyball, I will continue to do so.

After volleyball, we usually go to Adams Road hawker centre or the hawker centres at Teo Pehin Lorong 5 or 8.

We have two days in the week to let loose and spend quality time, as a good weekend for me is forgetting about the demands of life and just enjoying the good moments.

Passion for life

Zest in both work and play keeps this lecturer looking good. DIETACRINE LING reports

What do you do to keep fit?

I spend at least 45 minutes each week on sports. Volleyball comes up often at work, but even when I'm not working, I take up the sport. It's a fun way to stay fit and healthy.

What is your secret to looking so fit?

When you have the right attitude to life, things will fall into place. Looking good comes from within, so it is important to be happy.

How does your fitness affect your work?

Yes, I have better energy to undertake what I do. I am a lecturer and I have to be energetic to lead my students.

What is your diet like?

I eat a lot of healthy food. I love to eat fruits and vegetables. I also like to eat some protein. I don't eat too much sugar and fat.

What are your fitness goals?

I want to be a professional athlete. I want to be able to play sports at a high level.

Do you have any tips for others?

Stay active. Don't sit for too long. Take breaks from work. Eat healthy food. Drink water.
